Publisher's Statement.—The combined circulation of the Daily and Weekly (Sherman, Tex.) Democrat is 4300, the largest in the fifth (Bailey's) Congressional district. Sherman is the Athens of the southwest, 12000 inhabitants, 70000 population in county. Ours is a progressive, refined, well-to-do people. Large business houses, colleges, churches and palatial homes attest this assertion. The Democrat has been under the same management for 20 years. It has succeeded, made money and a multitude of friends. Its foreign list of advertisers is the best. None but reputable goods are advertised. We invite correspondence from firms willing to pay well for good service.

UTAH.

Capital, Salt Lake City. Settled at Salt Lake City by Mormons in 1847. Population, 207,905. Area, 84970 sq. miles. Acres of farm land, 665,524. Value of farm land, $14,015,178. Annual value of farm products, $3,337,410. Vote in 1896: Dem. 64607; Rep. 13491; G. Dem. 21.

Utah is bounded on the north by Idaho and Wyoming; on the east by Wyoming and Colorado; on the south by Arizona and on the west by Nevada. The surface of Utah is for the most part mountainous, crossed from north to south by the Wahsatch range, the eastern wall of the Great Basin. The loftiest peaks in the state are: Mts. Nebo, 11680 ft; Emmons, 13694 ft; Gilbert's Peak, 13687 ft; Wilson's Peak, 13235 ft; and Burro Peak, 12384 ft. In the southeast is the upper part of the Grand Canyon of Colorado, the most wonderful gorge in the world; and in the northwest is the Great Salt Lake Desert. The eastern portion of the state is drained by the Colorado and its principal tributary, the Green river. Utah has 3,000,000 acres of arable land, watered by 1000 miles of canals. These irrigated lands annually produce 6,000,000 bushels of grain, 1,000,000 bushels of potatoes, 600,000 bushels of fruit and 500,000 tons of lucerne hay. The state has 3,000,000 head of cattle, and annually produces 9,000,000 pounds of wool. Utah ranks third in the production of silver and lead and annually produces $680,000 in gold, $10,000,000 in silver and large quantities of coal and salt. Utah's factories employ 3600 people, with an annual product valued at $9,000,000. Utah has 27 counties and newspapers are published in 20 of them. The leading cities are: Salt Lake City, Ogden, Provo City, Logan, Park City, Springville and Mount Pleasant.

METHOD IN ADVERTISING.

"Be Wise with Speed."

—Young.

THE poet Gray said of himself that he "had not the method of making a fortune." It takes method. Method is the outward and visible sign of experience. Men of business believe in advertising, but many of them fail to succeed for lack of method. A reliable advertising agent has experience and method as his stock in trade. He knows when to put the small advertisement in the large paper, or the large advertisement in the small paper; what paper or periodical to put it in; when, where, and how, and just how much should be paid for it. He is the pilot to avoid the rocks and shoals of "schemes" and side issues and direct you to a safe port. It is best to calculate what amount you can afford to invest in advertising during a given time; then come to us, and we will show you how to make it go the farthest and do the most good. Let us reduce your advertising to a method, regulated by your expenditure and based on our experience of nearly fifty years. You will soon realize the soundness of our advice. Our staff of artists and writers is unexcelled for efficiency, and can be relied upon for rapid, satisfactory, and economical service.

VIRGINIA.

Capital, Richmond. Settled at Jamestown by Englishmen in 1607. Population, 1,655,983. Area, 42450 sq. miles. Acres of farm land, 19,910,700; value of farm land, $216,028,107; annual value of farm products, $45,726,221. State debt, $31,525,535. Vote in 1896: Dem. 154,709; Rep. 135,368; Pro. 2350; G. Dem. 2129; Social Labor, 108.

Virginia is bounded on the northwest by Kentucky and West Virginia; on the northeast by the Potomac river, which separates it from Maryland; on the east by Chesapeake bay and the Atlantic ocean and on the south by North Carolina and Tennessee. Virginia comprises six grand divisions, the surface gradually rising toward the west: The Tidewater, Middle, Piedmont, Blue Ridge, Valley and Appalachian sections. East of the mountains the state is drained by the Potomac, Rappahannock, York and James rivers and their tributary streams. The Shenandoah drains the famous Shenandoah valley in the northwest. Agriculture is the leading industry and the farms of Virginia annually produce 37,000,000 bushels of corn, 5,614,000 bushels of wheat and 6,587,000 bushels of oats. The state ranks second in the production of tobacco, with an annual product of 73,000,000 pounds, valued at $6,000,000. Virginia leads the Union in the raising of peanuts, with an annual crop valued at $2,578,120. Fruits and vegetables are produced in large quantities. The state has 251,000 horses, worth $12,000,000; 590,000 cattle, worth $7,000,000; 340,000 sheep and 417,000 hogs. The old Dominion produces 160,000 tons of pig iron, 40000 tons rolled iron, 1,400,000 tons of coal, 20000 tons lead and considerable gold every year. Virginia's manufactures, the most important of which are tobacco, iron, flour, coke, leather, lumber and cotton, amount to $75,000,000 a year. "The making of cigarettes has brought a world-wide patronage to Richmond, where the old house of Allen & Ginter was the first ever to use for cigarette-making the pure and aromatic Virginia leaf tobacco, which is grown exclusively in Virginia and North Carolina. After a successful career, the house has become the Allen & Ginter branch of the American Tobacco Company, having $25,000,000 of capital and which owns and operates practically all the cigarette factories in this country." Among Virginia's famous resorts may be mentioned: Old Point Comfort, Newport News, Virginia Beach, Colonial Beach, Buford, Roanoke, Mountain Lake, Wytheville, Afton and Harrisonburg. Newspapers are published in 79 of the 100 counties of Virginia. The leading cities are: Richmond, Norfolk, Petersburg, Lynchburg, Roanoke, Alexandria, Portsmouth, Danville, Manchester and Staunton.

In making up lists for use in the State of Virginia, advertisers should not fail to make use of the following Newspapers, which are reliable in every sense of the word and of proven advertising worth. In their advertisement further on in this volume specific information is given concerning each one. As the authorized representative of each of the papers recommended we shall be glad to furnish all information and to receive advertising orders for them.

NO business man can afford the time to thoroughly master the art in advertising. It is "time elaborately thrown away." He might be more profitably employed. Every man to his specialty. When an advertiser does his own advertising, it is "speculation;" when he does it through an experienced agent, it is "investment." Select your agent carefully. You engage a lawyer who has made a reputation; a doctor who has wrought cures for a generation; a bank which has weathered financial storms. We have helped two generations to save money and make it, by showing how, when and where advertising should be done to produce the best results with the least expenditure. Pettingill & Co.

WEST VIRGINIA.

Capital, Charleston. Settled near Phillipi by Pennsylvanians in 1704. Population, 762,794. Area, 24780 sq. miles. Acres of farm land, 10,225,341; value of farm land, $133,147,175; annual value of farm products, $19,360,049. No state debt. Vote in 1896: Rep. 105,368; Dem. 94480; Pro. 1216; G. Dem. 675.

West Virginia is bounded on the north by Pennsylvania and the Potomac river, which separates it from Maryland; on the east by Maryland; on the southeast by Virginia; on the southwest by the Big Sandy river, which separates it from Kentucky and on the northwest by the Ohio river, which separates it from Ohio. West Virginia is mountainous, falling from the Alleghanies, 2500 feet, to the Ohio. The state is drained, in the east by the Potomac, in the west by the Ohio and its tributaries. The farms of West Virginia employ two-thirds of the population and produce 16,000,000 bushels of corn, 3,000,000 bushels of wheat, 3,000,000 bushels of oats and over 2,600,000 pounds of tobacco every year. The state has 1,600,000 head of live stock, valued at $24,000,000. West Virginia has 16000 square miles of coal fields, 115 regular and 996 local mines, with an annual product of 6,231,880 tons, valued at $5,086,584. The state's manufactures comprise iron and steel, tobacco, glass, pottery, coke, flour and leather and amount to $23,000,000 annually. Greenbrier, White Sulphur springs, Berkleley Springs and Red Sulphur Springs are among the state's most famous health resorts. West Virginia has 55 counties and newspapers are published in all. The leading towns are: Wheeling, Huntington, Parkersburg, Martinsburg, Charleston, Grafton and Clarksburg.

In making up lists for use in the State of West Virginia, advertisers should not fail to make use of the following Newspapers, which are reliable in every sense of the word and of proven advertising worth. In their advertisement further on in this volume specific information is given concerning each one. As the authorized representative of each of the papers recommended we shall be glad to furnish all information and to receive advertising orders for them.

WASHINGTON.

Capital, Olympia. Settled at Turnwater by Englanders in 1845. Population, 349,390. Area, 69180 sq. miles. Acres of farm land, 1,409,421; value of farm land, $13,844,244; annual value of farm products, $4,212,750. Vote in 1896: Fus. 51646; Rep. 39153; S. Dem. 1668; Pro. 9681; Nat. 148.

Washington is bounded on the north by British Columbia; on the east by Idaho; on the south by the Columbia river, which separates it from Oregon and on the west by the Pacific ocean. The Cascade mountains divide the state into eastern Washington, a vast extent of farming and grazing land and western Washington, a mountainous district clad with forests. The state has 20,000,000 acres of timber, 10,000,000 acres of arable land, 5,000,000 acres of fertile river bottoms and 10,000,000 acres of forests and mineral lands. Mount Tacoma, in the western part of Washington is one of the grandest mountain peaks in America. "Near the Columbia river are the lofty volcanic cones of Mt. Adams and Mt. St. Helen's, each nearly 10000 feet high and visible over many leagues of the valley. In the north stands Mt. Baker, 10755 feet high, a volcano which had eruptions in 1843, 1854, 1858 and 1870, pouring out vast volumes of smoke 2000 feet high and covering the country with ashes like a snowfall." East of the mountains the state is drained by the Columbia and Snake rivers, while western Washington is drained by several short streams flowing into Puget sound. The latter is one of the most beautiful bodies of water in the world. "In the largest extension the sound has a shore line of 1600 miles and includes 2000 square miles. The exports of Puget sound reach $9,000,000 a year, two thirds of it along the coast and the rest to foreign ports. Washington ships 200,000 tons of wheat to Europe yearly; and when the Isthmus of Panama is pierced, grain-laden steamships can run from Puget sound to Liverpool in three weeks, saving 40 per cent in cost of shipment (which is now 35 shillings a ton.) The nine mountainous islands of San Juan county abound in scenic beauty. The 2000 islanders are mainly fruit farmers and shepherds" and have seven churches and ten post-offices. Steamers run daily from the Archipelago, alternately to Port Townsend and Schone. The islands have deposits of iron and marble and also make and export 400,000 barrels of lime every year. Within three months the population rose from 2500 to 3000. Whidby Island, with 115,000 acres and Camano Island, with 30000 acres, lie near the mouth of Puget sound and form Island County, which has 1300 inhabitants, farmers, lumbermen and shipbuilders." Among the Pacific states Washington ranks third in fisheries and second in salmon fisheries. The salmon fisheries of the Columbia river and Puget sound region amount to $1,500,000 a year. A thousand vessels sail from Puget sound yearly, bearing $8,000,000 worth of lumber, coal, salmon and grain. Washington annually produces 15,000,000 bushels of wheat, 7,000,000 bushels of oats, 40000 bales of hops and 4,500,000 pounds of wool. The forests of western Washington annually furnish 1,321,400,000 feet of lumber and 888,400,000 shingles. The state's mines annually yield 1,350,000 tons of coal and considerable gold, silver, sandstone and limestone. Newspapers are published in all the 34 counties of the state. The leading towns are: Seattle, Tacoma, Spokane Falls, Walla Walla, Olympia, Port Townsend, Fairhaven and Whatcom.

In making up lists for use in the State of Washington, advertisers should not fail to make use of the following Newspapers, which are reliable in every sense of the word and of proven advertising worth. In their advertisement further on in this volume specific information is given concerning each one. As the authorized representative of each of the papers recommended we shall be glad to furnish all information and to receive advertising orders for them.

SEATTLE, POST INTELLIGENCER.....207

SAID a prominent New England publisher: "I respect the firm of Pettingill & Co. because I know they are more interested in the success of their clients than most other agencies, and place the business where they can get the best service for the money. We always give them the lowest rates and the choicest positions because they are developers of business and allies rather than parasites."

Publisher's Statement.—The Weekly Germania has double the circulation of any other German weekly published in America. It circulates in every state. The Evening and Sunday editions of the Daily Germania have each a larger circulation than that of all other Milwaukee German dailies combined. The city circulation equals that of any Milwaukee daily.

Publisher's Statement.—All an advertiser, who intends to spend his money in Milwaukee need do, so as to not make a mistake about which paper to use, is to send for a week's issue of each paper. By so doing he will readily observe that The Milwaukee Journal is not only the most metropolitan newspaper printed in Milwaukee, but carries more advertising than does any other daily paper printed in Wisconsin.

Publisher's Statement.—Der Seebote is a live, progressive, up-to-date newspaper and the fact of its being the only Democratic German paper in Milwaukee, it reaches an exclusive class of people reached by no other paper. It also circulates largely in the state among the well-to-do farmers and can certainly be recommended as an excellent advertising medium. Rates are very low and the best of results are guaranteed.

Publisher's Statement.—The Milwaukee Sentinel is the only English morning daily in Milwaukee (population 265,000)." The evening field is divided among three English dailies. It sends out separate editions every hour after midnight until 6.00 a. m., reaching even remote parts of Wisconsin hours ahead of any other English daily from Milwaukee, Chicago, Minneapolis or St. Paul. It has its own city delivery and owns its ten story fire proof building. The Sentinel's circulation has always enjoyed a healthy growth and has never been inflated by any coupon or other fake schemes. During the war excitement of 1898, it frequently ran up to 75000 on certain days and seldom was less than 35000, but it does not allow this to swell the so-called average circulation for the year, like many other papers. It is satisfied with a bona fide actual circulation built up by degrees. It is the only Milwaukee paper refusing objectionable advertisements, medical as well as others.

Publisher's Statement.—The leading publications in Monroe are the daily and semi-weekly issues of The Times. The Evening Times, printed daily, without making circulation boasts, has a local field that it occupies all by itself and it goes to leading citizens in adjoining towns. Its general distribution in the locality where it circulates has given it an enviable position and it has stood the test of time. The Semi-weekly Times, changed on Jan. 1st, from a weekly that was started in Sept. 1898, has a circulation of 1000 and is a growing publication. It is the only semi-weekly in the country.

Publisher's Statement.—Unquestionably the best advertising medium in northern Wisconsin is the Oshkosh Morning Times. It publishes the full Associated Press night report and on account of its location in the state is enabled to reach all parts of northern Wisconsin and the Michigan peninsula six hours ahead of the Chicago and Milwaukee dailies. Testimonials on file from Democratic candidates for state and county offices assert that The Oshkosh Times is by far the best Democratic paper in Wisconsin. Advertisers desiring to reach the woodworkers of Oshkosh, the largest sash and door manufacturing city in the world; the paper mill operatives of the Fox river valley and the lumbermen of the north should advertise in the Times. Circulation 4750.

WYOMING.

Capital, Cheyenne City. Settled at Fort Laramie by Fur-traders in 1834. Population, 60705. Area, 97890 sq. miles. Acres of farm land, 124,433; value of farm land, $835,895; annual value of farm products, $372,391. State debt, $320,000. Vote in 1896: Dem. 10369; Rep. 10072; Pop. 286; Pro. 136.

Wyoming is bounded on the north by Montana; on the east by South Dakota and Nebraska; on the south by Colorado and Utah and on the west by Idaho and Montana. Wyoming is larger than all New England, a highland region with an average elevation of 6000 feet increasing to more than 12000 feet in the Continental Divide. All the northwestern portion is mountainous. In the south are the Laramie plains, 2,000,000 acres. There are acres of irrigable land in the Big Horn, Tongue, Powder and Green River valleys. The state abounds in natural curiosities, fossils, deep canons, waterfalls, geysers and alkaline lakes. More fossils of prehistoric animals, dinosaurs and others, have been found here than anywhere else in America. It was here that the bones of the gigantic Brontosauros, 130 feet long and weighing 140,000 pounds, were recently discovered. "The Cheyenne Can near Islay, honeycombs the plateau of Table mountains, with scores of subterranean chambers, brilliant with their panophy of stalactites and crystals." Wyoming has more than 10,000,000 acres of forests. The state ranks second in the extent of its irrigation canals, over 5000 miles, watering 2,000,000 acres. Grazing is the most important industry, with 1,500,000 cattle, 1,000,000 sheep and 150,000 horses, representing $100,000,000 capital. The mines of Wyoming produce annually 2,000,000 tons of coal, worth over $3,000,000 and small amounts of gold, copper, iron and gypsum. "The Yellowstone National Park covers a rectangle of 3575 square miles, nearly all in northwestern Wyoming. It is a lofty and pillowy plateau, 8000 feet above the sea, nearly as large as Connecticut, covered with dense forests of Douglas spruce and yellow pine and broken by isolated groups of mountains. The whole region is overlaid with lava, and dotted with geysers and hot springs, depositing iron, silica, lime and sulphur and bursting forth on nearly every square mile, in the woods and along the peaks and even boiling in the lakes. These are the largest geysers in the world, exceeding those of Iceland or New Zealand; and their variety of action, character and power is wonderfully interesting. There are more geysers and hot springs in this reservation than in any other region of thermal activity, and yet they are but the diminishing remanent of the fiercer volcanic energies of the past." Wyoming has 13 counties and newspapers are published in all. The leading towns are: Cheyenne, Laramie, Rock Springs, Rawlins, Evanston and New Castle.

IT is the most natural thing in the world for one who has not the special experience to judge lightly of its requirements, but if he were to recall the labor and time it has taken to become proficient in his own line, he would comprehend at a glance the importance of engaging experienced assistance in so important a department. For nearly fifty years we have been showing thousands of business men the recognized "short cut" to success by giving them the benefit of our experience in advertising. We have also been able, owing to our long connection with publishers, to offer exceptional terms. We are always on the alert, constantly infusing new blood into our business, and our ripened experience tells us instantly what to use, how to use it, and what to pay for it. There are many signs of improvement in finance and commerce, and now is the time to plan for the Fall and Winter campaign. Competition in business will be keener than ever, and the need of experience proportionately increased. We shall be pleased to have you consult us.

Publisher's Statement.—The Daily Advertiser is issued in two editions. The noon edition has the largest circulation of any noon edition in Canada. London has more trains leaving the city daily than any other place in Canada as it is connected with four railways. This enables the edition to be carried to all parts of western Ontario. The evening edition is delivered by carrier boys and is also handled by 150 agencies in the city. The street sales are steady. It is the family paper of western Ontario. The Western Advertiser is known as the premier weekly of the west. Both publications are patronized by the largest advertisers in the United States and Canada.

Publisher's Statement.—The London Daily News is the wide-awake, up-to-date paper of western Ontario, a rich district of half a million. It recognizes the advertisers right to know the circulation by issuing sworn statements certified to by its heaviest local advertisers. Its patrons say it is the best paying medium in the district. ART AND LITERATURE.—MAGAZINES.

A COMPLETE CLASSIFIED LIST OF THE MAGAZINES AND PUBLICATIONS OF GENERAL CIRCULATION, DEVOTED TO ART AND LITERATURE.

CALIFORNIA.

Overland Monthly, San Francisco—Monthly; Est. '68; 144p 7×10; Sub. $1. Overland Monthly Pub. Co. Circ.....30000

Publisher's Statement.—The Overland Monthly is the magazine that for thirty years has been recognized the world over as the representative magazine of the great west coast. Circulation is among the best people of the west and of the country generally. On file in all libraries and reading rooms, so that its real clientage is many fold greater than its actual edition. Standard eastern advertisers have used it for years, with ample results.

CONNECTICUT.

Connecticut Magazine, Hartford — Monthly; Est. '95; 100p 7×10; Sub. $1. Connecticut Magazine Co. Circ.....12000

Publisher's Statement.—Published monthly. Fifth year. It covers the largest territory of any publication in southern New England, whether a daily paper or periodical. Is primarily a home magazine; is freely illustrated with the finest half-tone photo engravings. Sold on all news stands in southern New England at ten cents a number. Subscription, $1.00 a year. Its advertising rates are reasonable and its ads. produce results. Guaranteed circulation of 12000 copies per issue.

Yale Alumni Weekly, New Haven—Thursday; Est. '91; 8p 11×16; Sub. $2.50. Lewis S. Welch. Circ.....4105

Publisher's Statement.—The Yale Alumni Weekly was established to keep the whole Yale family together. They are everywhere and so is the weekly. Since the paper was established on a permanent business and editorial basis, under the management of men of journalistic experience, it has nearly trebled its circulation, although in that time it has twice raised its subscription price in order to meet the demands of its constituency as to the quality and quantity of its university news. The circulation is large at New Haven, among the faculty, graduates and students, and is particularly strong in New England, eastern and central states. The paper is compactly made, and the advertisements are very conspicuously displayed.

Donahoe's Magazine, Boston—Monthly; Est. '79; 100p 6×9; Sub. $2. Donahoe's Magazine Co. Circ.....147300

Publisher's Statement.—Donahoe's Magazine, the leading Catholic monthly. Bright, timely, entertaining, every department shows careful study of readers' wishes. Beautiful engravings, interesting papers, biographical sketches, short stories and many other attractive features. A favorite advertising medium for progressive business people—why? Because it reaches a larger public than any other monthly. Tact, attention and interest in advertisers' welfare mark its management.

Household, Boston—Monthly; Est. '68; 32p 11×15; Sub. $1. W. N. Hartshorn & Co. Circ.....94625

Journal of Am. Folke-Lore, Boston—Quarterly; Est. '88; 100p 7×10; Sub. $4. Am. Folke-Lore Soc. Circ.....1750

Littell's Living Age, Boston—Saturday; Est. '44; 64p 7×9; Sub. $6. Living Age Co. Circ.....10000

Publisher's Statement.—Littell's Living Age. The first question the wise advertiser considers is not so much the quantity—how much he shall do—as the quality, that is, the mediums he shall employ. The Living Age holds a unique position in magazine history. It is, as a critic has said, "A monthly that comes every week." It presents in a compact and handy form a compendium of the old world's choicest periodical literature; embracing the productions of the ablest living writers in all branches of literature, science, politics and art. It may safely be added that no other publication is more eagerly read or more carefully preserved by its readers, who are people of the highest intelligence, with means to gratify their desires; including, with their families men of business and of the learned professions; bankers and bishops, doctors of medicine and doctors of philosophy, lawyers, teachers, clergymen, etc. It is also largely represented in the libraries and reading clubs, thus greatly increasing its value to the advertiser. This character of its circulation is important, making it worth very much more to advertisers than a circulation of many times its numbers in an ordinary magazine.

MISSOURI.

Chaperone Magazine, St. Louis—Monthly; Est. '89; 128p 7×10; Sub. $1. Chaperone Magazine Pub. Co. Circ.....395458

Publisher's Statement.—The Chaperone Magazine is published in St. Louis, and holds the key to the advertising field for the great south and southwest—just the territory you want to reach—and is the only publication of its kind between Philadelphia and San Francisco. It is the ideal publication for women, with an individuality of its own, and alive to the ever-changing demands of the moment. It reaches the home and library table of the well-to-do and progressive people. It has been thoroughly demonstrated that a magazine, having attained the age of the Chaperone, as a medium for advertising leads in paying qualities all other publications. It has a circulation of 19000 monthly in the city of St. Louis, and we have printed an average of 90000 copies per month for the last twelve months.

Ladies' World, New York—Monthly; Est. '79; 20p 11×16; Sub. 40c. S. H. Moore & Co. Circ.....①421,167

Publisher's Statement.—The great bulk of the circulation of The Ladies' World is made up of paid-in-advance yearly subscriptions, the remainder of the circulation being composed almost entirely of copies handled by news dealers. At no time do the copies going to news agents amount to over ten per cent. of the total circulation. It is a popular household medium, going monthly into nearly half a million homes—actual average circulation for 1898, 421,-167 copies per issue. Accepts only reputable advertising. Pays advertisers handsomely. Forms close first of the month preceding date of issue.

Ledger Monthly, New York—Monthly; Est. '44; 32p 12×16; Sub. 50c. Robert Bonner's Sons. Circ.....4 150,000

Publisher's Statement.—The Ledger Monthly is a beautifully illustrated publication, containing an immense fund of clean, interesting, helpful reading. Among its contributors are the best authors of today. It contains departments devoted to all branches of domestic economy, conducted by authorities on the various topics. A feature of the Ledger Monthly is its lithographed covers, upon which, each month, is reproduced in colors some noted painting. The above points, with the low subscription price, 50 cents a year, make the Ledger Monthly an invaluable advertising medium for those who wish to reach the homes of the people.

Publisher's Statement.—The American Agriculturist has a sworn circulation of over 57000 copies, covering thoroughly the middle and southern states. This is twice the circulation of any weekly agricultural paper covering the same section, and the results which it is bringing to advertisers has placed it in the very front rank of the agricultural weeklies. This paper also has an eastern edition known as the New England Homestead, published at Springfield, Mass., with a sworn circulation of over 36000 copies, and a western edition known as the Orange Judd Farmer, published at Chicago, Ill., with a sworn circulation of over 57000 copies. No agricultural weeklies in the country to-day are better and more favorably known than these three great specimens of farm papers.

Publisher's Statement.—The Otsego Farmer has the second largest sworn circulation of any $1.50 county paper in the Empire state. It is the only local paper in central New York that has 8 pages and 8 columns to the page. Its greatest feature is county news, in which direction it has been a pioneer. Its second leading feature is agricultural matter and carefully prepared market reports. Circulation books open to every advertiser, and only reliable advertisers admitted to its columns. Independent in politics and fearless, but always fair in local affairs, this paper has won the entire confidence of its readers.

Publisher's Statement.—To reach the Mississippi valley states most successfully use the Live Stock Journal. It stands preeminently at the head for agricultural advertising that pays. It reaches the stock farmers and breeders, the leading progressive men who subscribe for it on its merits. The pioneer Stock Journal of America, established in 1868, the recognized authority on live stock. It occupies the front rank for successful and practical advertising. Our advertising rate of $2 per inch, is very low for our large circulation and the superior character of our journal. Always have the Stock Journal on your list. T. Butterworth, Publisher, 152 50th Street, Chicago, and Quincy, Ill.

Publisher's Statement.—In all America there are only seven semi-mo. papers having as large a guaranteed circulation as Farm Poultry. In all the northeastern states, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and the six New England states it has the highest rating of any paper devoted to live stock; in New England it equals the combined circulation of all such. Farm Poultry has a larger circulation, a greater influence, and more well-to-do readers than any other poultry paper in all the world. It will pay any advertiser who wishes to reach families who have money to spend.

Conkey's Home Journal, Chicago—Monthly; Est. '97; 36-48p 9×12; Sub. 50c. Am. Musical Asso. Circ.....4100,000

Publisher's Statement.—Conkey's Home Journal, published by the American Musical Association, W. B. Conkey Company, Proprietors, with over 400,000 members to draw from is certain to have a large circulation. The January, 1899 issue was 100,000, and the subscription list is growing at the rate of about 5000 per month. The members of the American Musicaf Association live in the smaller towns and cities, and have acquired the habit of buying musical instruments and sheet music by mail, and for this reason Conkey's Home Journal is a profitable medium for articles that interest the women and are used in the homes. Yearly or till-forbid orders can be placed at the 1000 line rate, with the privilege of stopping any time at a pro rata price if the returns are not satisfactory.

Publisher's Statement.—In the midst of active life have not your thoughts, at times, drifted to memories of your boyhood days and the Old Homestead of long ago? Has it not been a refreshing and healthful change? It is with similiar feelings that our reading public turn to the columns of The Old Homestead for that pure and elevating reading, so lacking in many publications. Its constituency is the home circle, and its aim and purpose is to be most welcome to and worthy of its many patrons. It is an excellent medium for high class advertising. Is your advertisement in its columns? If not, we beleive it would be to your interest to place it there. The rates are commensurate with the service given.

Publisher's Statement.—The Army and Navy Journal, established in 1863, during the civil war, is the best known and most widely distributed of service periodicals. It contains over fifty per cent more reading matter than any other, and an examination will show that it is incomparably the best service paper in this country. As a result of the Spanish war it has had a very large increase in its circulation and the gain continues, so that its advertising is worth much more than ever before. With 100,000 men in the army instead of 25000 and a corresponding increase in the navy, there can be no doubt but that this increase will be permanent.

Pilot, Boston—Saturday; Cath; Est. '36; 8p 18×24; Sub. $2.50. Pilot Pub. Co. Circ..④75410

Publisher's Statement.—It is admitted that quality of circulation is at least as important as quantity. The Pilot has both in a very marked degree. It appeals to the most intelligent and prosperous members of a church whose communicants, even in New England (according to the Independent) "exceeds in number those of all Protestant bodies combined, by a quarter of a million." The census of 1890 makes this an undeniable fact. The Pilot is, beyond question, the leading representative of this great section of the purchasing public. To reach and influence it effectively advertise in the Pilot.

Publisher's Statement.—Confined to no sect or society, it reaches the best in all. Its regular readers are located in every state in the United States and every province in Canada. Its subscribers are ministers and church members of all denominations. It is on file in the reading rooms of the leading theological seminaries, Y. M. C. A.'s, etc., of all the principal cities and towns in the United States and Canada. The Outlook says: "Since the Church Union changed hands it has become virtually a new paper, so greatly has it been improved. Mr. Samuel T. Carter, its editor, is to be congratulated on his success in producing a journal so admirable for intellectual substance, literary quality, Christian spirit and practical directness."

Publisher's Statement.—"In all America, no other Lutheran publication has credit for so large a circulation as is accorded to the Young Lutheran, and the publishers of the American Newspaper Directory guarantee the accuracy of the circulation rating accorded to this paper by a reward of $100, payable to the first person who successfully assails it"—From Printers' Ink, 1896. Its circulation is among well-to-do people who buy goods and pay for them. It is not a child's paper, as the name is sometimes misapprehended to mean. Advertising rates, $1.00 per inch per annum for each thousand of circulation.

Religious Review of Reviews, Phillipsdale—Monthly; Est. '98; 94p 7×10; Sub. $2. Providence Albertypo Co. Circ.....‡5375

Publisher's Statement.—The Religious Review of Reviews is decidedly the handsomest and in many respects the best religious publication in the field. It goes into the homes of the best families, reaching the class able to patronize advertisers. The reason that it is a good advertising medium is because it is a magazine of merit, and, therefore takes. The circulation is growing rapidly.

Field and Stream, New York.—Monthly; Est. '96; 80p 7×10; Sub. $1. John P. Burkhard. Circ.....④25000

Publisher's Statement.—In this day of multitudinous publications and forced or hot-house methods of circulation it is safe to say that a high grade magazine like Field and Stream, with its strong individuality and the liberally disposed class of readers it attracts, offers a ratio of advertising value several times greater than the accepted standard of value in magazine advertising. It covers a form of recreation to which its devotees are more strongly and lastingly attached than perhaps any other, and which is also a growing necessity of the times and permits of exceptionally interesting treatment. The circulation is growing more rapidly than any other publication devoted to sportsmen. Each and every copy, old or new, is valuable to the advertiser.

Forest and Stream, New York—Saturday; Est. '73; 32p 11×16; Sub. $4. Forest and Stream Pub. Co. Circ.....④15000

Publisher's Statement.—Forest and Stream is the oldest, largest and best sportsman's journal in America. Its circulation is double that of any other. The largest advertisers in Forest and Stream to-day are the firms who have been in the paper continuously for the twenty-five years of publication.

Publisher's Statement.—The Economist is the principal journalistic factor in the distribution of dry goods in this country. At least one-half the considerable retailers order from its advertisements and reports. It has practically no competition in its line of work. It can sell the right goods at a lower ratio of expense than that of travelers, or any other printed matter. Communicate with its advertising department, 78 and 80 Walker St., New York City.

Publisher's Statement.—The Spatula is a handsomely illustrated magazine devoted to the business and professional interests of druggists. It has subscribers in every state in the Union and in nineteen foreign countries. Its advertising rates are lower than those of any other pharmaceutical journal of equal circulation. The number and character of the firms represented in its columns attest its worth as an advertising medium for reaching the wide-awake purchasing druggist. The Spatula is read, advertisements and all.

Publisher's Statement.—The Plumbers' Trade Journal is credited by all advertising agencies as issuing more than the combined circulation of its contemporaries. June and July of each year, when our trade meets in annual convention, The Plumbers' Trade Journal prints each issue about 20000 copies. Our Christmas issue each year runs up to 25000 copies. Books will be shown to verify these statements. Advertising rates are: One page, one year, $1,200; half page, $700; quarter page, $400—payable quarterly in advance. Rates for smaller space furnished on application. Advertisers secure the best results.

Railroad Car Journal, New York, N. Y.—Monthly; Est. '91; 64p 9×12; Sub. $1. Car Journal Pub. Co. Circ.....④2793

Publisher's Statement.—The Railroad Car Journal is the only periodical published exclusively in the interests of railroad car construction, maintenance and interchange. Its advertisements bring car supplies to the notice of officers in charge of rolling stock and purchasing agents. It does this more effectually than any other railroad periodical, being generally recognized as the standard paper of the car departments of American railroads. The Journal has a department, the railroad paint shop, which is the official organ of the Master Car and Locomotive Painters' Association. This makes it unquestionably the best medium for advertising paints and varnishes for rolling stock.

INTRODUCTION

THE NEWSPAPER ADVERTISEMENTS.

A MERE tabulated list is necessarily limited in its scope and meagre in its information. In the following carefully prepared and verified statements by leading, reliable newspaper publishers, will be found precisely the detailed information about the character of the particular localities (with which they are thoroughly familiar), which the average advertiser, wishing to introduce or to gain a greater sale for his goods, most wishes to know. The strongest endorsement this work could have received from any source has been the increased encouragement from leading publishers. They have made use of this opportunity to tell their particular stories, each in his own way; and have thus contributed materially toward making this the most complete and comprehensive Newspaper Directory and Gazetteer ever published. It goes further than being merely a Directory. It gives specific details about advertising media obtainable in no other way possible.

The list of papers given covers every portion of the country considered desirable by prominent advertisers. Prospective advertisers may well study the special information it contains. The enterprise and progressiveness of the publishers here represented is evident. They believe in newspaper advertising as applied to their own methods and media, quite as much as they believe in the merits and value of the papers themselves.

It is proper to state in this connection that we are the authorized agent of every newspaper here announced. We are in a position to quote the lowest possible prices for space in any or all of them, and shall be glad at any time to furnish estimates.

Believing that this feature of our newest (and by far best) Directory and Gazetteer will prove valuable alike to advertisers and publishers generally, we again commend a careful reading of what follows as conducive to the best possible results.

Another valuable feature of this work will be found in the Publishers' Statements immediately following the Reports and Ratings of those who have seen fit to avail themselves of the privilege. These statements give briefly, additional facts and figures of each publication included, and furnish a mass of information than can be obtained from no other source, and should, in connection with the Gazetteer matter, the Reports and Ratings, enable advertisers to form a very correct estimate of the possibilities of any particular section of the country.

THE LEDGER MONTHLY

A Richly Illustrated and Beautiful Periodical Covering the Whole Field of Popular Reading.

50 Cts. a Year 5 Cts. a Copy

The Ledger Monthly

is the marvel of the age for beauty and low price. With its Artistic Lithographic Colored Covers, Superb Pictorial Illustrations, Serial and Short Stories by Leading Writers, and Special Departments of Decorative Art, Embroidery, Home Employment for Women, a Floral Department, and, in fact, every Department of Home Improvement which adds to the economy and charm of home life, be it indoors or outdoors, the LEDGER MONTHLY is beyond question, and, according to the most wonderful production for its price. Simply to see a copy of the LEDGER MONTHLY is to be firmly convinced that no such costly periodical has ever been offered to the public for so little money.

Comments of the Press of the Whole United States

FLAT ADVERTISING RATE PER AGATE LINE 50 Cts.

No objectionable advertisements taken and all advertisements and cuts subject to approval.

All advertisements placed alongside of reading matter.

No advertisement accepted measuring less than 4 Agate lines.

A Live Wire

"Pooh!" said the man, "there's nothing in it; it's just a wire, that's all." He put his hand on it and dropped dead.

There are skeptical advertisers who do not know the tremendous vitality and money-making power there is in THE VICKERY & HILL LIST of popular family publications. Every copy goes in an independent wrapper to a live person. Every paper on the list would be self-supporting if it did not carry a dollar's worth of advertising. Those who have tried it know it is a live wire.

In PRINTERS' INK of March 1, 1893, an article appeared, written by Dr. John H. Woodbury, in which he stated that the Vickery & Hill List was among the publications giving him the best returns. Recently when the doctor was asked whether his opinion had changed since then, this was his reply in writing:

"NEW YORK, July 11, 1898.

"DEAR SIR:

"Replying to your esteemed favor, would say: the fact that I have just made a contract for $10,000 worth of space in the VICKERY & HILL Publications is the best evidence that I have not changed the opinion expressed in the article which I wrote for PRINTERS' INK in 1893. I have always found the VICKERY & HILL Publications to be paying mediums, and I am looking for more like them. Yours very truly,

"JOHN H. WOODBURY, D.I."

To You...

ADVERTISERS ought to know that five hundred thousand copies of THE AMERICAN WOMAN in five hundred thousand separate wrappers go to five hundred thousand individual women every month. It goes to women only, and has the advantage of being read specially by them. They are women of the great middle class, living outside of large cities, who do most of their own housework and their own buying.

THE AMERICAN WOMAN is profitable to such high-class advertisers as SAPOLIO, ENAMELINE, HARTSHORN SHADE ROLLERS, DR. R. V. PIERCE, HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA, J. C. AYER & CO., WELLS, RICHARDSON & CO., W. CUSHING & CO.; besides the great mail-order houses like SEARS, ROEBUCK & CO. and INGERSOLL & BRO., etc. If you have anything to sell that women want, it would certainly be profitable to YOU.

The American Woman

500,000 Copies Monthly, in Separate Wrappers, to Women.

These figures are absolutely proven in any way an advertiser asks. Rate, $2.00 per line. Forms close on the 25th of the SECOND month preceding date of issue (five weeks before publication.)

Send your orders through your agent, or to

The vast importance to the advertiser of quick distribution of news can not be too greatly emphasized. In addition to the regular Associated Press Report, THE TIMES receives through its special correspondents a great amount of exclusive news matter. Its news service is not equaled by any other Western newspaper, and by means of the fast morning trains and the railroad connections made by these trains, THE TIMES is distributed in 800 towns the same day it is published. Its clientele comprises a most desirable class of people — the big middle class — always the largest purchasers of advertised goods. It is the popular paper in this section. A constantly increasing circulation gives best evidence of this. If you want results you must include THE KANSAS CITY TIMES.

THE STORY OF THE YEAR 1898!

"Most Important Paper in Binghamton."

There is one Best Paper in every town. In Binghamton it is the Leader. It is the "leader" in every line which tends to make it the representative paper of its community. As a news gatherer and authority in its field it holds first place. As an advertising medium it has no equal in Binghamton and surrounding territory. What have you to sell that the industrious inhabitants of this section of the great State of New York might require? Whatever it is, you can dispose of it through the columns of the Leader. Are not the figures given below a grand showing for the Leader?

AN ACTUAL AND HONEST COUNT—BOTH DAILY AND WEEKLY.

Many Happy Returns of the Day to the Louisville Courier-Journal.

"'Twas in the Newspaper and all the world now knows it."

"I awoke one morning and found myself famous."

A short time ago the Louisville COURIER-JOURNAL celebrated its thirtieth birthday—thirty years of the best kind of work in the troublous paths of journalism.

What momentous national events, what startling political crises, victories, defeats it has participated in during those three decades!

Born amid the smoking ashes of the Confederacy, the COURIER-JOURNAL has witnessed the new South come into being. It has helped to heal old wounds, has lived to see sons of "boys in gray" fighting shoulder to shoulder with offsprings of "boys in blue" before Santiago and Manila. Henry Watterson may look back over that period with a thrill of pride. Under his editorship his paper has commanded respect even from those who received its fiercest blows. As he is fond of saying, he is a newspaper man to the bone. When on November 8, 1868, the amalgamated paper, henceforth to be known as the COURIER-JOURNAL, made its first appearance, it did so sturdily supporting a high journalistic ideal. The chasm separating North and South was to be filled up. Justice, tolerance, political honesty were to be supported. The paper's absolute moral independence was to be maintained at all costs.

These were the principles which the COURIER-JOURNAL started out to defend. These are its principles to-day.

It has stood to them through storm and stress. The paper has not flinched in its advocacy of sound democracy, of solidarity of the union of truth and justice, firm in its belief that real liberty could not be wanting where these two were firmly established.

If the COURIER-JOURNAL can look back with pride, as it can, it may also look forward without fear.—N. Y. Herald, Dec. 6, 1898.

52 YEARS OLD....

Congratulations from the Famous House of
F. MIDDLETON & CO.....

The Philadelphia Item's

..FIFTY-SECOND BIRTHDAY..

Middleton & Co., have always obtained Good Results from "Ads" in the Philadelphia Item.

The famous tea, coffee and baking powder house of F. Middleton & Co., 19, 21, and 23 S. Second Street, have given a great deal of attention to advertising, and are thoroughly competent to speak regarding the results obtained. Their Advertising Department is presided over by Mr. Theo. E. Payne, who, as a constructor and writer of "ads," is the equal of any and the superior of many. Messrs. Middleton & Co., have been in the business over forty years, and have been close students of the various methods for increasing and pushing trade. Years ago they hit upon an idea to create an enormous demand for "Middleton's Silver Coffee," (a special high-grade brand) by giving a silver spoon free with each pound sold. This idea expanded, so that now the Messrs. Middleton & Co. give away china and glassware, silverware, clothes wringers, carpet sweepers, dry goods, lace curtains, mirrors, umbrellas, umbrella stands, albums, and many other articles of household value and interest. Orders placed by this firm in various parts of the country give steady employment to fully a hundred thousand people. Their three large warehouses on North Front Street and those in New York City demonstrate the immense stock they are compelled to carry to supply the demand.

As we have already said, such a house is competent to judge of the effects of advertising, and when they make a statement it is backed by personal experience and actual results obtained. The congratulatory letter they have written to The Item possesses general interest for the public and special interest for the advertiser, and we therefore give it publicity.

LETTER FROM F. MIDDLETON & CO.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 27, 1898.

Publishers The Item, Philadelphia, Pa.—We desire to congratulate you on reaching the FIFTY-SECOND YEAR of the publication of The Philadelphia Item. That its career HAS BEEN AND IS A SUCCESSFUL ONE, is well known. We have been, from time to time LARGE ADVERTISERS in your valuable journal and have ALWAYS OBTAINED GOOD RESULTS.

We are not doing any daily newspaper advertising at the present time, but at any such time as we do, The Philadelphia Item will not be forgotten.

Trusting that the future of The Item will be as BRIGHT AND AS SUCCESSFUL AS HAS BEEN ITS PAST, we are, Yours very truly,

F. MIDDLETON & CO.,

Portland Evening Express.

Established, Daily 1882. Weekly 1889.

PORTLAND, MAINE.

Population of Portland, 50,000. Cumberland County, 90,000. An eight-page paper. Subscription price $5.00 per year. By mail $4.00. Weekly Express $1.00.

AVERAGE SWORN CIRCULATION FOR 1898, 6,139.

Although the youngest paper in Portland, it has by its enterprise and quality as a Newspaper, attained the Largest Daily Circulation in Maine. The Express has the Associated Press Franchise which service is received over a special leased wire running direct into its editorial rooms. The first and only daily in Portland receiving its telegraph news over a special wire. Considering circulation, its Advertising Rates are low.

The Express is not sensational, but aims to be a clean Family Paper.

Portland is the metropolis of the State. Its business is largely commercial, but it has a great variety of manufacturing industries, requiring skilled mechanics, who receive excellent pay. It is, therefore, a good market in which to sell almost any commodity.

Ninety per cent. of the circulation of the Express is delivered to regular subscribers, by carrier or mail.

It is circulated principally in Portland and the towns within a radius of ten miles, but is taken more or less all over Cumberland county, in which Portland is situated.

It is circulated among the best class of citizens. It reaches the buyers.

The EXPRESS can give more publicity in its section of the State than any daily in Portland.

The WEEKLY EXPRESS circulates in the farming districts. It is an eight-page paper.

Circulation guaranteed—average for 1898, 1,140.

A canvas of Portland advertisers has recently been made by an expert to ascertain the relative merits of the several papers. In his report the ADVERTISER was complimented by almost every one who was interviewed. One of the largest advertisers in the city said the ADVERTISER is the best advertising medium among the evening papers. You cannot afford to leave out the ADVERTISER in your list of papers if you wish to reach the best people in Portland. Try it and be convinced of its value as a first-class advertising medium. Your advertisement in the PORTLAND ADVERTISER will be read by men and women who in serving their own interests are certain to advance yours. Try it. Address for terms, etc.,

The New England Statist

(MORNING)

The Boston Financial News

(AFTERNOON)

The leading financial newspaper of New England, published daily, except Sundays and holidays. As a medium for high-class advertising, not only of a financial nature, but of kindred subjects in which the investment of money or the utilization of capital is concerned these papers are pre-eminently the most valuable of any in New England. They reach more thoroughly than any publication ever issued in New England the investors of this locality, covering it thoroughly and fully.

The New England Statist

published every morning, is without exception or question the most complete bond paper in the world, carefully edited, and the reports and records being in every sense of the word official, it is accepted as the standard authority by banks and others as the most reliable publication concerning bonds extant. As such, it possesses the confidence of its constituents to the fullest extent, and advertising of a high-class character in its columns cannot fail to be profitable.

A FEW FACTS ABOUT THE UNION AND THE TERRITORY COVERED BY IT

Springfield is recognized as the best trade center of any city in New England excepting Boston. There are over 400,000 people within a radius of 50 miles, all of whom regard Springfield as their base of supplies. There are no morning papers in this territory outside of Springfield, and the Morning Union covers the field hours before the Boston or New York papers are received. The Evening Union is the only daily in Western Massachusetts having the full report of the Associated Press and it practically has no competitor.

The Union is the recognized authority in Western New England on all topics of the day. It is the leading Republican newspaper of New England.

The Union carries more classified advertisements than all the other Springfield Dailies combined. Special attention given to general advertising and correspondence is solicited from all prospective advertisers.

BERKSHIRE SUNDAY DEMOCRAT.

The Democrat is a Sunday morning newspaper, not a weekly in the usual meaning of the word weekly. It is the only local paper selling in its section on Sundays and it reaches every one that the two local evening papers reach, and more. So by its use your announcements are brought to the attention of every one worth reaching, at the minimum expense and at a time when they have the leisure and inclination to read the advertisements. If your appropriation permits of your advertising every day, then you want to use the Democrat also for the same reason that you would use the Sunday edition in any other city.

At any rate write to see what the Democrat can do for you.

.....Lowest Rates in the United States.....

The Evening News

SALEM, MASS...

Careful examination of the rate cards of all the daily newspapers published in the United States shows that the charges of The News are lower than any of them. The cost of a yearly advertisement, taking run of paper, and printed every day, is but one-seventeenth of a cent per line for each thousand of circulation. The average daily circulation of 1898 was 16,480.

With the cheapest rates in the country, The News is such a bargain that all advertising agents recommend the paper to their customers who want to cover Massachusetts.

Established 1768.

The Salem Daily Gazette,

Salem, Mass.....

This paper has been published in Salem ever since 1768, and in that long period it has secured for itself a strong and permanent place in the community, giving the paper the essentials necessary for a good advertising medium.

The patrons of the Gazette comprise the better class in Salem and vicinity, who rely upon it as one of the institutions of the city.

Advertising rates are very low considering the size and quality of the circulation. The Gazette is one of the best mediums in the state for general advertisers.

The Great Buying Public is Reached through these Papers.

The Reason Why They have a decided advantage over all other Local papers is this:

They are the only papers published in Lawrence, Mass., that are served by the Associated Press — hence the newsiest.
They are the only local papers using Type Setting Machines.
They are the only local papers that are progressive, enterprising and up to date.
Old customers continue with us — new ones appreciate the value of our columns.

Exchanges, dead-heads, complimentary and sample copies not counted. No better general advertising medium in a field of this size, in New England.

The Daily Courier.

The oldest newspaper in this field, always respectable and respected. Its clientage cannot be reached by any other medium. There's nothing better, anywhere, for advertising high grade goods.

The Weekly Journal.

To-day, as always, for the past fifty years, the leading weekly of this section, with special correspondents in all the towns, its reliable news gives it the confidence of the people of this rich farming district. It has a value for advertisers rarely found in the county weekly of to-day.

IN COMBINATION

these publications offer to advertisers a proposition which completely covers a field of more than ordinary value, to the general advertiser, at a price much below the average for the service given.

Modes and Fabrics Progress and Good Returns are three important items the advertiser should have before him when considering magazines in which to place an advertisement of his wares.

350,000 COPIES PER MONTH

among the best buying homes of the country has been a convincing argument in our favor.

50,000 COPIES

recently added to our circulation is another inducement we offer early in 1889 to the prospective advertiser.

This guarantee of circulation now in hand, with an appropriation of set aside for still further increasing our reading clientage in '99 is an argument in favor of demanding the consideration of every intelligent advertiser.

The Cosmopolitan Magazine.

350,000 A MONTH.

LARGEST CLIENTELE OF INTELLIGENT, THOUGHTFUL READERS, POSSESSED BY ANY PUBLICATION, DAILY, WEEKLY, OR MONTHLY, IN THE WORLD.

A DECADE OF PROGRESS.

The Cosmopolitan Magazine has now been for ten years under its present editor and owner, Mr. John Brisben Walker. It has grown in strength year by year until to-day it has a most influential position among the country's periodicals. Its editions after January, 1899, will not be under 350,000 copies, enabling it to claim, not that it issues the largest edition, for there are three periodicals, the "Ladies' Home Journal," "Comfort," and "Munsey's," which probably issue more copies, but that it has the largest clientele of intelligent, thoughtful readers reached by any periodical — daily, weekly, or monthly — in the world. This is not a reflection on the other periodicals named. They are ably edited for certain classes, and an examination of the periodicals included in this list will quickly satisfy the inquirer of the accuracy of this judgment.

TWO MILLION READERS.

It is no small accomplishment to sell each month three hundred and fifty thousand copies of a magazine which appeals distinctly to the best and most intellectual classes. The circulations in the United States above that figure can be counted as above mentioned. The attainment of this great circulation means two things. The first is merit. The second is an acceptable price. At the lowest calculation, each number of the magazine is read by six persons. This gives a clientele of over two million people each month — people who buy, people who have money, people in every State in the Union and every country in the world.

ENTERTAINMENT AND EDUCATION.

The Cosmopolitan Magazine has high ideals and follows them. It admits nothing cheap, nothing nasty, nothing that is not good writing or good art to its pages — no matter what the pressure brought to bear, and no matter what the price. The magazine is conducted on broad lines. Its aim is the upbuilding of the best interests of the people. It is an educator as well as an entertainer. It does nothing for the momentary advantage, but thinks constantly of the future. Therefore, its readers are not the transient class who pick up a copy idly now and then for amusement, but an army of two million sensible, intelligent, cultured, and culture-loving men and women, believing in The Cosmopolitan, recognizing and applauding its trend and tendencies, and standing firmly behind it in every move it makes. The men and women who read The Cosmopolitan are the men and women who form the bulwark of the republic. They are thinkers. They are well-to-do. They are able to buy, and the experience of the advertisers in The Cosmopolitan proves that they do buy.

Something .. for .. Nothing

During 1899 THE METROPOLITAN MAGAZINE will have first call upon the services of an advertising expert with a reputation as a man of ideas. The Advertising Department will prepare ads. and create designs every bit as good as those for which so-called specialists charge from five to fifty dollars, and the service will not cost the advertiser or the agent a solitary cent.

200,000 buyers means half a million readers — to say the least. A constantly increasing demand means that THE METROPOLITAN adheres to its high standard. Increased sales of a fifteen cent magazine in the face of the vast ten-cent opposition means that THE METROPOLITAN is considered by the public to be worth fifty per cent more than the majority of magazines. It could not mean anything else, no matter what way you look at it.

This is as plain as anything can be. It is not mere self-laudation. It is the baldest sort of fact. The sensible advertiser and the shrewd agent need no further proof than their own common sense. The sensible and the shrewd men are the only ones that will think this over. It is worth another thought.

Important to Advertisers..

Concerning the American Monthly Review of Reviews.

THIS Magazine guaranteed an average of 120,000 copies per issue for 1899, and based the advertising rate on this circulation.

In consequence of the most successful circulation season the American Monthly Review of Reviews has ever known, the Magazine begins the new year, 1899, with issues for January and February of no less than 165,000 copies in each month.

It can be stated without any froth or ornamentation of language that, at the low rate yet obtainable, this is an opportunity for a profitable investment which is not open to magazine advertisers twice in a decade.

Advertisers are aware that the American Monthly Review of Reviews is a twenty-five cent magazine going to the representative people of the country, and they have seen the documentary evidence that hundreds of the best known advertisers in America received profitable returns from the magazine after a period when the circulation was only about half the present.

Advertising that Creates Demand

IS what the advertiser gets, when he sells his goods through the pages of VANITY FAIR. This publication boasts of an Advertising Specialist who is neither parrot not pirate. He ranks with the leading experts of the country. As a creator of ideas, HE STANDS ALONE. His services and advice are at the disposal of the advertiser—won't cost a cent. If prospective advertisers wish to "take his measure," let them send him samples of former advertising, and judge from the outcome whether he is a first-class man, or only a first-class second-class fakir. The Man of Ideas will show how to turn bad advertising into good, and make a better sort of what is already considered successful.

VANITY FAIR is concededly the brightest and breeziest, warmest and wittiest thing that ever came over a press. It appeals to a class that is ready and willing to spend money. Its advertisements will be of a sort that will appeal to everybody. Postal the Ad-section for a sample copy, and learn why the circulation is steadily climbing towards six figures.

The Literary Digest..

Has been conspicuous during the past year as the most uniformly profitable medium used by advertisers. In no case has it failed to bring paying returns, and in many instances the results have been phenomenal.

For 1899 the publishers guarantee that every issue shall be at least 50,000 copies, and this condition may be made a part of any contract for advertising in its columns. The rate is 40 cents a line, with graded discounts down to a minimum of 28 cents a line. It goes to the homes of Lawyers, Physicians, Bankers, Clergymen and Business and Professional people of the highest standing.

FUNK & WAGNALLS CO., Publishers,

30 Lafayette Pl., New York City.

The New Voice..

Is a brightened, improved and enlarged edition of the well-known weekly, The Voice. The pages are reduced in size but increased to 16 in number. The quality of paper and press-work is of the finest, and in point of illustration and text The New Voice is the peer of the best family weekly in America. Its subscribers are the thrifty families throughout the rural sections and smaller towns and cities of the country. The rate is 75 cents a line, scaling down to a minimum of 37 1-2 cents.

The Glass of Fashion.

UP TO DATE.

This publication was issued October, 1896, to take the place of "The Ladies' Monthly Review," which was established in 1875. It met with unprecedented success, increasing in circulation over 80,000 copies in three months. Its monthly issue is now over 200,000 copies per month.

The distribution of this Magazine is made as follows:—

40 per cent paid Yearly Subscribers.
40 per cent by Agents of the Butterick Publishing Co. (Ltd.) in the larger cities.
20 per cent Retail Sales.

THE GLASS OF FASHION is sold in every part of the United States, being handled by over 5,000 of the leading merchants of the country.

Notwithstanding the marked improvement made in the appearance of the Magazine, the generous display of illustrations, the wealth of reading matter, and the addition of colored plates each month, it remains without question the lowest priced first-class Fashion and Household Magazine in the world.

Subscription Price, 50 Cents a Year. Single Copies, 5 Cents each.

Four Reasons...

First.—In point of circulation it is one of the largest single publications.

Second.—It is an agricultural publication with a clientele of its own and possesses a constituency which advertisers cannot reach so effectually through other mediums.

Third.—It goes into a half million homes, largely among people who are engaged in farming pursuits, or else closely identified with and dependent thereon. Shrewd advertisers who know how to appeal to this great purchasing class continuously use the Metropolitan and Rural Home.

Fourth.—Its rate is cheaper in proportion to circulation than any similar publication.

Advertisements That Draw

The strife for originality in illustration and typography becomes constantly more active, especially among established houses advertising proprietary medicines. No advertisements now printed in American newspapers are so conspicuously successful as those originated and prepared by The Advertising Plate Co. for certain of its large plate customers.

The Advertising Plate Co. gets pretty close to the proposition before beginning work, and each advertiser's style is decided upon, adhered to and kept distinct. Our original work is confined to those houses that use our system of plates. We simplify complications for concerns that have depended upon each individual newspaper for typography, and take all annoying details upon ourselves for a moderate consideration.

Proprietary medicine houses and other concerns courting large publicity, secure through us a practically perfect service, the original work being clearly in the lead and the system of duplication of plates the most economical known.

All inquiries and preliminary correspondence should be addressed to our Main Offices, 232-236 William St., New York.

THE PRESS-KNICKERBOCKER & EXPRESS.

(Three Big Daily Papers in One.)

The consolidation of the Daily Knickerbocker (established in 1842), with the Daily Press, (established by Myron H. Rooker in 1877), and now with The Albany Morning Express (established in 1847), (The Press Company having purchased The Albany Morning Express and consolidated it with Press-Knickerbocker January 7, 1899), makes a triple alliance of great newspapers that has no parallel in this country's newspaper history, and the whole forms ONE GREAT INDEPENDENT DAILY MORNING NEWSPAPER in the City of Albany.

(From the New York Sun, Jan. 8th, 1899.)

SALE OF THE ALBANY EXPRESS.

William Barnes, Jr., Disposes of it to the Press-Knickerbocker.

Albany, Jan. 7.—The Morning Express, the local regular Republican morning paper, has been sold to the Press and Knickerbocker and Sunday Press, the latter being of independent tendencies. Papers selling the good will and franchises of the Express to the Press Company were signed this afternoon. William Barnes, Jr., Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Republican State Committee, who owns the Albany Journal, also owned the Express, which was issued from the same building as the Journal.

The Daily Press was started in 1877, and a few years later it absorbed the Daily Knickerbocker, which last paper was founded in 1842 by the late Hugh Hastings, at one time editor of the New York Commercial Advertiser, and continued publication under the name of Press-Knickerbocker. The Express was founded in 1847 by Alfred Stone and Edward Henley, and has always been regarded as a valuable piece of newspaper property. It was Whig in politics. In 1870 Postmaster-General Charles Emory Smith, now proprietor of the Philadelphia Press, secured control. Mr. Smith remained in charge two years, and then sold out to Addison A. Keyes. William Barnes, Jr., secured control of the property in 1888 and held it until to-day, when it passed to the control of Press-Knickerbocker. The controlling interest in The Press company, proprietors of the combined newspapers, which will be issued from the Press-Knickerbocker plant, is owned by the family of the late Myron H. Rooker, founder of the Daily and Sunday Press. Mr. Rooker was a brother of the late Thomas N. Rooker, who was for fifty years connected with the New York Tribune and was associated with Horace Greeley in the first issue of the Tribune. The combined paper will be known as the Press-Knickerbocker & Express.

An alliance offensive and defensive in the interests of the people, and, therefore, an alliance worth cultivating on the part of the advertiser.

"Every Triple Composite is Perfect."

HERE is a triple composite of daily newspapers, all of large circulation, old and influential, which makes ONE GREAT MORNING DAILY NEWSPAPER IN ALBANY, known as the Daily Press-Knickerbocker

and
Albany Morning Express

Its component parts are :

The Daily Knickerbocker, founded in 1842.
The Albany Morning Express, founded in 1847.
The Daily Press, founded in 1877.

If a daily newspaper be well appreciated at home, that is about as good a recommendation as it can possibly have in the eyes of foreign advertisers.

A reference to the advertising columns of the Press-Knickerbocker & Albany Morning Express will indicate at once how favorably its large circulation, immense influence, standing and prestige appeal to the business sense and judgment of local merchants.

The Press-Knickerbocker & Albany Morning Express is Albany's best newspaper and the best advertising medium in the county.

The Press-Knickerbocker purchased on Jan. 7, 1899, the Albany Morning Express and combined same with the Daily Press-Knickerbocker.

NOW in its twenty-second year is up to date on all subjects pertaining to Floriculture and Gardening; its great popularity and continued success are all the recommendations needed.

You can depend upon it, as its statements are true. The articles are boiled down, concise, yet plain and intelligent. Well illustrated with half tones and other engravings, printed on fine paper; not only ornamental but useful, reliable, practical. Subscribers are invited to ask questions pertaining to gardening or care of plants, to send photos of plants in house, on the piazzas or grounds and to tell of their successes or failures in order to help others. It is intended as a monthly chat with our friends.

The Ladies refer to VICK'S MAGAZINE for authority on Plants. The Nurseryman and Gardener turn with pleasure and satisfaction to its pages, knowing that its statements can be relied upon, and the wise ones realize a profit by following its teachings. LEADS IN NEWS. LEADS IN CIRCULATION. LEADS IN ADVERTISING.

A reason that it leads all others in everything is because it is read by the progressive, intelligent and thrifty buyers and sellers of the communities in which it circulates.

For this one reason the advertiser can be assured if he has anything to tell the public it will be read. If his articles of merchandise and other wares are desirable he will secure patrons.

The SPIRIT'S circulation is substantial. If you want results you can afford to pay SPIRIT rates. If not some other paper will do as well and come cheaper.

The Alabama Christian Advocate

Established 1881, and published in Birmingham, Ala., has the largest circulation of any weekly newspaper in Alabama. It is a paper that goes into the home and is read by the family. It is the organ of the Methodist Church, with a membership of 115,000. Through more than three hundred pastors this entire membership is reached. Think of reaching 115,000 persons through one paper in Alabama! There has not been a time before in thirty years when advertising in Alabama would have been as profitable as it will be during 1899. Rates low.

NEWSPAPER CIRCULATION

that reaches the homes possesses the highest value that it is possible to obtain. A newspaper read by the whole family is a most potent factor in moulding opinion, as young minds are set in motion and made to feel there is life and truth in the world. THE BIGGEST PUMPKIN

FARM AND FIRESIDE is unquestionably the biggest pumpkin in the field of agricultural advertising.

It carries more weight and influence with its subscribers than any other farm journal in America.

This is a good time for the general advertiser to use farm papers, and particularly Farm and Fireside, for farmers are to-day in the heyday of prosperity. They are virtually yours for the asking.

There's never any doubt about Farm and Fireside circulation, and never any doubt about its worth to live advertisers.

Sworn 1898 circulation 323,025 copies per issue.

The Reason

Young People's Weekly pays advertisers is because it reaches every issue 220,000 of the best homes in America. Its contents appeal to none other.

Young people generally have homes and enjoy the association of parents, grandparents and little and big brothers and sisters. Such homes represent the greatest consuming ability. Their possessors eat more bread, buy more meat, wear out more clothes and shoes, read more books, and support more educational institutions, etc., than homes without young people, and the only direct and economical means of reaching this great buying constituency is by using the Young People's Weekly. In so doing you eliminate all guessing and at once reach the eyes, brains, hearts and pocketbooks of those who require the most, both as individuals and families.

Ninety per cent of Young People's Weekly subscriptions are received from adults, assuring the fact of its appreciation by the older element.

No medical, misleading or undesirable advertisements accepted at any price.

[OVER.]

From a leading Advertising Agency

CHICAGO, Jan. 6, 1898.

PIERCE UNDERWOOD CO., Chicago.

Gentlemen:—It gives us considerable pleasure to hand to you the enclosed order for Miss C. H. Lippincott, and we do not ask you to give it special attention because we have always found in our dealings with you that you take good care of all the business we send you.

The "Young People's Weekly" ought to pay better this year than ever before, and the large amount of advertising you have done this last fall shows that you believe in taking your own medicine, and our experience has been that those publications who advertise for subscribers, secure an advertisement-answering constituency.

If the "Young People's Weekly" pays better than it has been paying, it will certainly pay indeed. With best wishes, we remain,

Yours very truly,
MAHIN ADVERTISING COMPANY.

From a leading Furniture Dealer

CHICAGO, Oct 6, 1898.

PIERCE UNDERWOOD CO.,
69 Dearborn Street, City.

Gentlemen:—Replying to your inquiry of even date we take pleasure in stating that our experience with the Young People's Weekly as an advertising medium has been altogether satisfactory. We confess that when we first considered the use of that paper we had serious misgivings as to the adaptability for our business. We were disposed to think that the juvenile character of the paper would not appeal to older people, to whom we must sell our goods exclusively. Our experience, however, has happily disproven this suspicion most substantially. We expect to continue to be extensive users of Young People's Weekly advertising space.

With kind personal regards, we remain,

Yours sincerely,
QUAKER VALLEY MANUFACTURING CO.

From the largest Sewing Machine Manufacturers in the world

NEW YORK, Oct. 7, 1898.

MR. PIERCE UNDERWOOD,
69 Dearborn Street, Chicago, Ill.

Dear Sir:—We are using space very liberally in the Young People's Weekly. This is due to the excellent results which the paper gave us in our test advertisement last January. This test produced 6033 replies to an ad inserted twice in January and twice in February. . . .

Very truly yours,
THE SINGER MANUFACTURING CO.,

From a prominent Book Publisher

PIERCE UNDERWOOD CO.,

Gentlemen:—We have recently advertised our "Vest Pocket Series" quite extensively in papers calculated to get "Mail Order" business, and among other papers, we made use of "The Young People's Weekly." We are pleased to state that we have received more and better results from this paper than from any other we have ever used, so we are forced to conclude that if a party has a good thing to offer, and will use this paper, the results are sure to more than meet expectations.

Very truly yours,

"THE MIDDLE WEST."

An Unequaled Field.

THE territory covered by the Chicago Newspaper Union Lists is best described by the term the Middle West. It lies between Ohio on the east and Nebraska on the west, including those States, and within a field reaching northward as far as the north line of Wisconsin and Michigan, and southward as far as the Ohio River. It is in the Middle West that the agricultural interests of this country have had their fullest and most prosperous development. Here are the homes of well-to-do farmers, whose well-tilled fields, handsome dwellings, and substantial farm buildings testify to the industry of several generations and to nature's bountiful rewards. And here, too, are growing towns and villages which are covered by the circulations of these papers, and whose citizens are among the best customers of the manufacturing and mercantile concerns of the country.

All over this fertile land prosperous cities and towns are found in which diversified manufacturing industries are established, affording employment for millions of operatives and comfortable support for their families.

These lists are published and read in the great States of Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Illinois, Wisconsin, Iowa, Nebraska and South Dakota. We have confined our field of operations to those States wherein the co-operative plan is used by the best class of papers, and circulation per paper is the largest. For this reason, and in view of the high average in means and intelligence of the readers of these papers, and their standing as to influence and circulation, we feel convinced that our lists are entitled to special consideration from advertisers.

Probably the most enterprising of all these papers published in foreign languages is the Daily Jewish Courier. The Courier is just as enterprising as the American papers—perhaps even more enterprising than some of them. The paper was founded over a decade ago in Chicago, and has prospered ever since. Today it prints between 5,000 and 6,000 papers every afternoon, and scatters them on every side of Chicago. Its influence among the Jewish race of the city is widespread and strong. The paper prints a weekly edition, which has a circulation almost twice as large as that of the daily and which is sent all over the world. The weekly has subscribers which are located as far away as southern Africa.

The Chicago Daily Republican is a Pure Straight Out Republican Newspaper. It is not an Independent or a Mugwump, but a Dyed in the Wool, "Abraham Lincoln" Republican Paper.

The Chicago Daily Republican publishes the following and hopes it will assist those that want better times, sound money and prosperity:—

Fifteen to one was selected because it was supposed to be the market rate at the time; but it was not or it soon ceased to be.

Sixteen to one was selected because fifteen to one was a failure.

The act of 1873 was passed because sixteen to one was a failure.

The Latin Union was formed because France could not maintain bimetallism alone.

The Latin Union stopped silver coinage because half a dozen nations could not maintain bimetallism.

The Sherman act was repealed because it was fast driving gold out of the country.

Debasing the coinage always has been the device of Kings, and always has been objected to by the people because they suffered from it.

We believe in Protection for American Industries, and Reciprocity.

The Chicago Daily Republican is printed in every department by skilled Union Workmen. Its printers are members of Typographical Union No. 16. We believe in Union Labor first, last and all the time.

The Republican-Post

PEKIN, ILLINOIS.

Is the oldest Republican paper in Central Illinois, having been established in 1835 as the Tazewell County Whig, at Tremont, this county, when that village was the county seat. It circulates among the oldest families in the county. The DAILY EVENING POST was established in 1885, and is the official city and county paper.

No Paper on Earth Competes With It.

The Ottumwa, (Iowa,) Courier

Is a strictly up-to-date Associated Press newspaper, circulating in ten of the most prosperous and populous counties in Southern Iowa. No paper on earth competes successfully with it in securing and publishing the news of this territory. Hence a daily circulation guaranteed to be over three times as large as that of any other daily paper in the same field. Sworn average circulation for one year ending December 19, 1898, Daily, 3,429; Weekly 3,679. The Ottumwa Courier is printed from stereotyped forms on a web perfecting press.

A. W. LEE, - - - Publisher.

Champaign and Urbana, Ill.

Have grown very rapidly since the census of 1890, and now have a population of over 15,000. They are side by side as one city. The University of Illinois with 1,750 students is in the midst of them. THE CHAMPAIGN DAILY NEWS reaches all these people.

Champaign County has a population of 50,000. It is the best agricultural county in Illinois. It is covered thoroughly by THE CHAMPAIGN COUNTY NEWS, published twice a week, every issue a complete newspaper. Reporters at every town in the county, giving more than fifty columns of local and county news each week.

THE DAILY NEWS contains 56 to 70 columns each issue; THE COUNTY NEWS, 112 to 140 columns each week. The actual average circulation of THE DAILY NEWS exceeds 1,400 copies per issue. For years the circulation of THE COUNTY NEWS has not fallen below 4,400 copies per issue. THE NEWS, both editions, is easily the leader in its field. Rates moderate.

PRINTER'S INK, New York, says: "THE NEWS, Champaign, Ill., shows the largest circulation in Champaign Co."

The Leader

Reaches the people of Eastern Alger and Northern Schoolcraft Counties, Michigan. There is no medium that will reach this section equal to The Leader. Advertisers are invited to give our columns a trial.

Is the leading newspaper of Northern Michigan. Established twenty-seven years ago, it has grown and prospered in a rich community and is to-day one of Michigan's greatest publications.

Its Circulation exceeds that of all other local papers combined, and is therefore unexcelled as an advertising medium.

The Tribune prints the full Associated Press reports, having its own leased wire. The WEEKLY TRIBUNE goes to the farming districts, and is the only English weekly of any consequence here.

To reach the people of Northern Michigan, an advertiser must use the "Tribune."

The Benzie Fruit Region

is the home of the Big Red Apple and the land of the Peach. Benzie county has doubled in population in five years. This means that the country is resourceful and the people prosperous. Benzie County is one of the few peach growing sections that escaped the zero weather of 1899 and will have peaches to sell this year. The largest, best printed, and most widely quoted paper in this famous region will assist you in getting these Benzie County dollars. The rate is reasonable—no fictitious value. We furnish sworn affidavits to the Doubting Thomases. Write for prices.

If I wanted to tell the story of my goods to Milwaukee and the whole of Wisconsin I would tell it in the . . . .

Established 1837. Milwaukee Sentinel DAILY SUNDAY WEEKLY

BECAUSE it is the only morning daily in Milwaukee—a city of 250,000 inhabitants. The evening field is divided between three dailies.

BECAUSE it is the home paper of Milwaukee—delivered early at city homes by its own carriers.

BECAUSE it reaches every remote part of Wisconsin hours earlier than any other daily and has almost a monpoly of state circulation. Send to us for leaflet with map and time table demonstrating this fact.

BECAUSE to use the popular Wisconsin phrase "Everybody Reads the Sentinel."

A Weekly more highly appreciated by farmers than any other in Southern Wisconsin. . . . . .

TO GET BUSINESS . . .

You must go where there is business activity. During the past year over 700 business places and residences have been erected in West Superior, and during the next six months the American Steel Barge Co. will spend over $750,000 and employ over 1,200 men in making improvements.

West Superior is the second city in Wisconsin, is at the head of the Great Lakes, has the largest coal docks and is the second milling city in the world.

The Superior Leader

Is the only morning and Sunday paper published in West Superior, and covers the field thoroughly. As an advertising medium it is the acknowledged peer of all Northern Wisconsin's publications. If you are looking for results in this locality you can do no better than use the Leader. Send for sample copy and rates.

Six Good Points ABOUT ... ... OUR Six Big Weeklies

1.—All subscriptions are paid in advance. No dead heads nor dead beats on our list. Our circulation is in the homes and not in the graveyards. People take the papers because they want them bad enough to pay for them, and having paid for them they read them in order to get the worth of their money.

2.—All papers are stitched and trimmed, making each page practically an outside page.

3.—Every advertisement is guaranteed a place next reading matter.

4.—Being weekly papers, they are read at home by the entire family and are read again by neighbors and visitors.

5.—Our readers have the most sublime confidence in anything that is printed in the papers—a confidence which extends to the advertisements.

6.—We accept no immoral or fake advertisements, so your advertisement will not be condemned for being in bad company.

ADVERTISERS PROVE . . . .

Established 1878.

The Circulation of the

MINNEAPOLIS JOURNAL

You Can Not be Deceived, .

You Can Measure Yourself.

The following percentages are made from the total amount of advertising carried by the respective papers from January 1st, 1898, to December 31st, 1898, from a carefully kept daily record. It does not include Free Wants or under-rate official advertising, neither of which is carried by the Journal.

The Journal carried during 1898 more advertising than the all-day Minneapolis Tribune by 68 per cent.

The Journal in its six issues per week in 1898 carried more advertising than the all-day daily Tribune and Sunday Tribune combined by 18 per cent.

The Journal carried during 1898 more advertising than the daily St. Paul Pioneer Press by 110 per cent.

The Journal carried for 1898 more advertising than the daily and Sunday Pioneer Press by 34 per cent.

The Journal carried 21 per cent. more advertising in 1898 than in 1897.

The Journal's Circulation increased 20 per cent. in 1898.

The Journal's advertising rates are higher than the other dailies, but lower per line per thousand circulation.

The Journal's Home Study Circle—Journal Junior, Insurance Department, Financial Page, Newsboys' Band and Club Rooms, Popular Railroad Excursions, etc., make it the Popular Home Daily of the Northwest. .. ..

The Minneapolis Times . . . .

Circulates both on week days and on Sundays substantially twice as many copies as any other morning paper published in its State or section . . . . . .

The accompanying table shows the total columns of paid advertising, exclusive of city and county printing, carried by the four Minneapolis and St. Paul morning papers during the year 1898. The figures are interesting and valuable as demonstrating the relative popularity of the respective dailies as advertising mediums. It will be noted that The Times carried more advertising than any of its contemporaries.

They Have a Large Field All to Themselves.

If you want to reach the Germans of St. Louis and Vicinity, you must use the publications of the German-American Press Association.

The Daily Morning "WESTLICHE POST," newsy, reliable and ably edited, it is the most widely circulated German newspaper in the United States, and is of inestimable value to advertisers.

The Daily Afternoon "ANZEIGER"

has a distinct class of readers, and a large circulation. It is the most up-to-date afternoon paper in the country.

THE "MISSISSIPPI-BLAETER"

(combined Sunday issue of the Westliche Post and Anzeiger) compares favorably with the best English Sunday paper, and the large advertising patronage visited upon it is proof positive of its superior value to advertisers.

THE "AGRICULTURAL WEEKLY" of the Westliche Post circulates all over the United States, and consequenily offers splendid opportunities to shrewd and far-seeing advertisers. Farmers, especially Germans, are thrifty, and have confidence in an honest and straightforward publication such as the above. The conclusion is obvious.

The Weekly "ANZEIGER DES WESTENS" reaches a thrifty, progressive and intelligent class of people, and is a valuable medium for advertising, made more so by the facts that its each copy is read for a whole week, its circulation prepaid.

NO DUPLICATION IN CIRCULATION.

(Established 1868, by BRET HARE.)

The Only Representative Magazine Published on the Pacific Coast.

It covers the Great West more completely than any other publication; it circulates extensively in the Hawaiian Islands, and among the English-speaking people in China, Japan and the Philippines — a field which for more than a generation it has made exclusively its own.

In California, Oregon, Washington and adjacent States it is found in almost every home, and in thousands of schools, where it reaches a large class of people who see no other magazine. Advertisers who wish to reach this populous territory cannot afford to omit the Overland Monthly from their lists.

Published at 548 Montgomery Street, SAN FRANCISCO.

As an advertising medium this paper is unsurpassed. The rate is very low as compared to circulation; lower, in fact, than any other paper we are acquainted with. While the quality of circulation is unexcelled, going, as it does, into the homes of the well-to-do farmers and gardeners, who have had a prosperous year's business, and thus are in a position to gratify their wants, we can safely claim that good and direct results are obtained through Up-to-Date's advertising pages. Let us ask each advertiser a question. Can you account for the large line of advertising each number contains on any theory other than "Advertising pays in Up-to-Date?" Does it occur to you that if it pays others it will pay you? There is no agricultural publication in the Middle West so valuable for advertisers.
